CRUISE & TRAVEL ADDICTS

Someone recently asked me if travel agents still exist, they thought we had become extinct! However, despite all the turmoil and world events, people are still travelling to all corners of the globe and are becoming more adventurous than ever. This makes our job really interesting, offering new ideas to stimulate your travel imagination. We remain travel and cruise addicts too, which means we have first hand experience of many destinations and ships. We remain as busy as ever, so we must be doing something right!

LYN MURPHY Manager

PS. Thank you to all of you who have referred family and friends, it is really appreciated.

TASTY TREATS FOOD ADVENTURES

Whether you are an adventurous eater or just love food, we have a brochure to whet your appetite!

Food-centric trips are full of tasty local treats and authentic food experiences, from bite size breaks to Urban Food Safaris, Eat with a Vietnamese family or with the locals at a centuries-old cantina in Spain, bake bread in a village's communal oven in Galicia. "Ethnic neighbourhoods in Los Angeles, Florence for Foodies, Tokyo "After 5" or Bites & Sights in Budapest" are just some of the food adventures on offer around the world.

PRIVATE JOURNEYS COX & KINGS

There are huge advantages in travelling with a small group. You can stop for impromptu photos, explore local eating options, get to know your fellow travellers and gain a better understanding of local cultures.

We've had extremely positive feedback from guests who have enjoyed Cox & King's tours this year. There is a vast choice. China Experience includes travel by Maglev bullet train, lessons in Chinese calligraphy, paper-cutting and tai chi as well as a river cruise past Guilin's green limestone hills. Golden Land of Burma includes learning to meditate with a monk in Rangoon, a sunset cruise on the Irrawaddy River and lunch at a local Intha's family restaurant.

Japan and Poland are just two of two of the many places you can visit.

For the adventurous, stay with a nomad community in Mongolia, visit the temples of Bhutan or discover the magic of Madagascar. Those less adventurous may prefer more traditional tours such as Splendours of Poland, Andalusia and Chile or Japan's Cultural Treasures.

FUN FAMILY ADVENTURES

Teen family trips, single parent departures and young family adventures (for 2-5 year olds) are now on offer.

If you're stuck for ideas for holidays with your family, we can help. Over 170 options are available worldwide including Slovakian Snow Adventure, Tiger Trails & Taj Mahal and Everest Teen trek. There's even a "Young Photographer" departure. Call in for your copy of this special brochure dedicated to ensuring your family has a holiday they will remember forever!

Did you know... We receive more great feedback about "Paris Charms & Secrets" Electro-bike tour than anything else in Paris! Discover the hidden side of this city for yourself next time you visit.

Remember - Without a travel agent you're on your own!

GOLF HOLIDAYS

Have you played golf in Thailand, Cambodia, New Zealand or Dubai? A golf holiday is the perfect gift for the golfer who has everything! The best golf resorts and courses have been selected by avid golfers. Siem Reap is the golfing centre of Cambodia and, with the magnificent temples of Angkor in close proximity, it's an ideal location. Thailand is tough to beat when it comes to value for money so try Blue Canyon in Phuket or Black Mountain in Hua Hin. Vietnam offers tropical year round golf weather, New Zealand is a dream destination and why not stop for a few days golf in Dubai on your way back from Europe. Call in for your personal Golf holidays brochure.

TIMELESS VILLAGES

FIT AND HEALTHY

In our quest to be fitter and healthier, a walking or cycling holiday is an ideal holiday. Whether cycling on the quiet backroads between the timeless villages of Umbria, discovering the history of the Mediterranean islands or lingering amid the châteaux of the Loire you can enjoy the scenery at your own pace. With new itineraries and opportunities to indulge in delicious regional cuisine and wines (as it's not good to be too fit and healthy!) try a healthier holiday in Europe next year.

GREAT TRAIN JOURNEYS

Rediscover the glamour, romance and adventure of Luxury rail travel.

Today it's no surprise that many of the world's great travel experiences are by train. Sit back in comfort; enjoy great food, wine and company while magnificent scenery passes you by. From the legendary Orient-Express (now offering Venice to Stockholm) to the Royal Scotsman, Danube Express, El Expreso de La Robla to the Palace on Wheels and more. We have a brochure dedicated to Great Train Journeys of the World. Perfect for those of you who don't like cruising!

GASTRONOMIC ITALY SLOW FOOD TRAVEL

When I was in Lucca our local guide took us to a "Slow Food" restaurant which was definitely off the tourist track. Whilst savouring some of the tasty home cooked dishes the guide explained what is required for a restaurant to have a "slow food" dish registered. So I was delighted to come across a gastronomic Slow Food tour of Sicily, which embodies the Slow Food principles of high-quality and sustainably produced local cuisine. You'll be introduced to an array of local producers dedicated to preserving the island's traditional flavours. Staying in Sicily's most charming medieval towns enjoy classic food in family-run restaurants, sip superb red wines and enjoy the many impressive archaeological sites and scenic countryside.

MS PAUL GAUGUIN

Polynesians have broad smiles, generous souls and always offer a warm welcome.

Whilst Tahiti is not the easiest place to get to, it's perfect for 10 days relaxation. Practice your French in the exotic islands of Moorea and Bora Bora on a 7 night cruise around Tahiti and the Society Islands. Snorkel in the crystal clear waters, kayak in Tah'a, take a 4WD tour in Moorea. There's plenty to do to work off the delicious cuisine served on board MS Paul Gauguin. Just ask Alison or Lyn who have both cruised on this ship enjoying the spectacular scenery of this region.

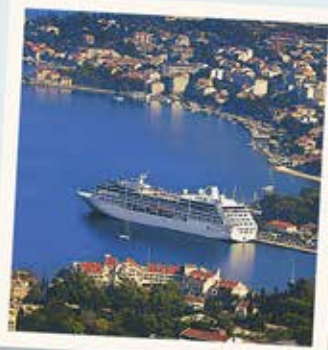

PS. Did you know the fabulous MV Tere Moana (90 guests) has some fabulous itineraries in the Mediterranean?

AZAMARA CLUB CRUISES

I recently joined Azamara Journey in Rome to cruise to some of the best ports in the Mediterranean. With mixed nationalities, a slightly younger age group and an informal yet elegant atmosphere, this cruise was one of the best I've ever experienced. Longer stays and overnights in ports enables you to discover what makes each port unique. Savouring fresh pasta inside an ancient castle in Chianti, listening to 3 local tenors was definitely one of many highlights - and it was free for everyone! The "white night" farewell on deck, surrounded by the lights of Monte Carlo, was quite magical. All I can say is that for those of you who are 35 - 65, who have never cruised before, try it! You'll become addicted.

LYN

Where have we been lately?

Here we are in beautiful Italy. A & K Guardian Angels are amazing. Nothing is left to chance. Our private driver and guide are just so friendly and know everything there is to know about seeing the Best of Rome. Our highlight was a surprise visit to The Knights of Malta Gate. What an experience one of Rome's best kept secrets.

DISCOVERING CUBA WITH LYN

Earlier this year I escorted a small group around some of the best parts of Cuba. One of my group describes their experience:

"Nothing can prepare you for the vibrance of Cuba, nor the genuine warmth of it's people. Be it a musician in a local café or the lady pushing a reconditioned pram selling macaroons - a smile is never far away. It's hard not to travel in Cuba without smiling, it's infectious.

I hadn't anticipated such diversity in the country, from bustling Havana, to cool mountain retreats, cobblestone streets of Trinidad and the pristine waters of the Caribbean.

Throughout our travels we explored the lot, also experiencing the less touristy side of Cuba with our intrepid guide and driver.

We all recognise the images of Cuba - vintage cars, Che Guevara and the Lady with a cigar. Cuba is so much more than this..."

LONDON & NEW YORK

"It's easy to fall in love with London in the springtime!"

I had a wonderful time as there are so many galleries, museums, palaces and other attractions - something around every corner. Highlights were a cruise on the Thames to Hampton Court Palace, a cup of tea at Fortnum and Masons, and I was lucky enough to catch the pomp and circumstance of the Trooping of The Colour, and even caught a wave from her Majesty!

"New York had a different feel. It is an exciting, vibrant, multicultural, 24hr city."

The shopping was fantastic, the Broadway shows were spectacular and the subway is so easy to use and safe. I also cruised around the Island of Manhattan and over to Ellis Island and the Statue of Liberty, both highly recommended.

I will definitely return to both amazing destinations!
